

METROLOGICAL CERTIFICATION IN UZBEKISTAN

From many questions to the result!

What is a Metrological Certificate?

Metrological Certificate proves that the certified measuring instrument meets all the requirements established for this type of measuring equipment, safety standards, has successfully passed both technical and measurement tests and is in the margin of error.

Why do we need Metrological Certificate for Uzbekistan?

The purpose of Metrological Certification is recognizing the legitimacy of a new or existing imported measuring instrument.

In which cases do we need Metrological Certificate?

Some areas of activity (such as medicine, defense of the state, Security, Geodesy, mining etc.) require the mandatory obtaining of a Metrological Certificate for measuring instruments

What are the types of Metrological Certificates?

Pattern Approval Certificate (PAC)
Primary Verification Certificate (PVC)

How can we obtain the Metrological Certificate for Uzbekistan?

ALPHA
THINK QUALITY

Accredited Certification Bodies /
Accredited body of the state
metrological service

UZSTANDART
PAC / PVC